Dear Sir:

I wrote the owner of The Jacksonville Red Caps, yesterday, asking him to contact you for me. In the meantime your address was sent to me so I am proceeding to write you myself.

I am the President of The Newark Eagles Baseball Club, a member of The Negro National League. I would like very much to train in Daytona Beach this season. I am writing to ask you if you would kindly assist me in arranging for this. It is of course necessary to secure accommodations for the men and a place to play.

The first ten men are to leave for camp about the last of March, and ten more will arrive a couple weeks later.

It might be possible to play some games during the time we would be there.

I will greatly appreciate hearing from you right away about this, as the time is drawing near when we must start. I have trained in Jacksonville Fla. up until now, but I have been told Daytona Beach is so desirable, that I am making this effort to come there.

Thanking you in advance for your assistance.

Very Truly Yours
